Can I get refunds across the counter?
In most cases, if your tickets are surrendered for cancellation within the prescribed time limits, you can get refunds across the counter.

What are the prescribed limits for refund?
1. In case of confirmed reserved tickets, upto 4 hours be-fore the scheduled departure of the train irrespective of distance. No refund will be granted after that.
2. In case of RAC/waitlisted/partially confirmed tickets upto half an hour before the scheduled departure of the train irrespective of the distance. No refund is permissible after that.
3. For trains departing between 21.00 hours and 06.00 hours (actual departure), you can get a refund within two hours of opening of the Reservation Office, in case no current counters are available at the originating station.

Suppose I am unable to get refund within the prescribed time limit.
(1) For refund of fare under circumstances other than those specified in these rules or under circumstances like ‘bandh’ or agitations or floods, etc., the passengers could not reach the reservation counter or station or current counters for cancellation of tickets, in those cases, a TDR shall be issued to the passenger and the passenger may apply for refund of fare within ten days from the day of commencement of journey to the Chief Commercial Manager (Refunds) of the railway administration under whose jurisdiction the TDR issuing station comes, enclosing the original TDR.
(2) The TDR shall be issued only upto three days after the scheduled departure of the train.

Suppose I am unable to approach the concerned authorities, what do I do?
In exceptional circumstances you may obtain a Ticket Deposit Receipt (TDR) from the nearest major station within 3 (Three) days from the day of scheduled travel. You must then submit an application in the prescribed form (Printed on the back of TDR) to the Chief Commercial Manager (Refunds) of the Zonal Railway to which the Ticket Deposit Receipt-issuing station belongs.

This application must be submitted within 10 (Ten) days from the date of your journey. The refund officer will examine the case on merit and, if decided, refund will be sent to you by a Station Pay Order (to be encashed at station) or Money Order or Crossed Cheque.

Will the entire amount be refunded or will I lose some money?
The fare you paid for your ticket will be refunded after deducting cancellation charges in case of confirmed ticket and clerkage Charge in case of RAC/WL/Unreserved Tickets, if the ticket is surrendered within the prescribed time limit as per refund rules.

How much will be deducted as cancellation charges?
The amount deducted is based on the time of cancellation and the status of your ticket. Detailed are given below:

(i) For cancellation of confirmed tickets more than 48 hours advance of the scheduled departure of the train.
