3. In all these cases the petitioners retired as Loco Running Supervisors and filed O.A. before CAT praying for grant of 55% add-on pay element on basic pay for the purpose of computing their retirement benefits as admissible to running staff. Various Benches of Central Administrative Tribunal and High Courts had allowed the benefit of 55% as pay element for computing pension to Loco Supervisors. Ministry of Railways had filed an SLP before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in SLP(C) 11805/2009 of Mr. R.D. Dixit. On the similar issue, nine more SLPs were filed before Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. These SLPs were tagged with SLP(C) 11805/2009. The Hon'ble Apex Court had given interim stay in these cases.

4. The case was last heard on 29-04-2015 and the following order was passed :-

“Sh. N. K. Kaul, learned Additional Solicitor General, appearing for the petitioners, on instructions, sought permission of this Court to withdraw these special leave petitions with liberty to file appropriate petition(s) before the High Court.

Permission sought for is granted.

The Special leave petitions are disposed of as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioners to make appropriate petition(s) before the High Court within one month from today. If such a petition is filed within the time prescribed, we request the High Court to consider the same in accordance with law, without reference to the period of limitation.

The petitioners are also permitted to raise all such grounds that are available to them, including the grounds urged in these special leave petitions .

5. The copy of the order can be obtained from the website of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and it is also enclosed herewith. There are a number of cases pending before many Central Administrative Tribunals and many Hon'ble High Courts on this subject and the zonal railways were instructed to submit before the respective courts of law that the case of UOI vs. R.D. Dixit and ors. along with 9 other tagged cases were pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India and that it had granted interim stay in the matter.

6. It is now informed that in pursuance of the order dt. 29.04.2015 review petitions have been filed before the Hon'ble High Courts of Delhi and Madras in the 10 cases mentioned in para (2) above. It is now requested that the above status may be submitted before the respective Courts of Law wherever similar cases are pending. Action taken may be informed to this office.
